

client
Foster Global
immigration law

facility
23,000 sf
Houston, TX

services
full service furniture planning including:

- extensive finish selection
- IT/data coordination
- project management

notable
With kimiko at their side, this client avoided a lengthy and laborious bid process, ultimately procuring furniture assets based on products, pricing, and professionalism.

Foster Global

case study

OBJECTIVES AND SOLUTIONS

- Deliver a well-appointed space without splashing the cash
- Collaborate with interiors firm to deliver a cohesive environment
- Maximize creativity within framework of CRE broker's project goals
- Perform planning early to achieve two rounds of value engineering

A MAJOR PAYOFF MINUS THE PRICE TAG

Thanks to strategic planning and smart budget management, this client and the entire firm take pride in a stunning space that belies its strict financial discipline.

Photo credit: Ziegler Cooper Architects

"Your patient consideration of our needs and feedback helped turn our vision for the new space into a reality. It all came together even better than we hoped - and the staff have been wowed by the new look!"

J LEE | PARTNER, FOSTER LLP